

Paul and Barnabas are in disagreement about who to take on their second missionary journey.

Paul and Barnabas are in disagreement about who to take on their second missionary journey.

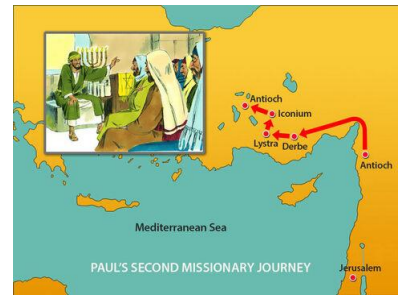

Paul takes Silas on his journey, and they travel over land.

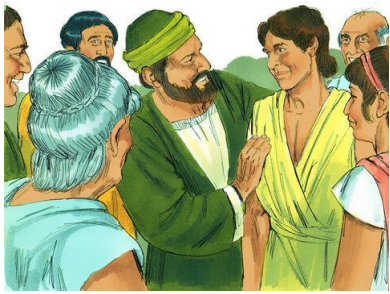

Paul takes Silas on his journey, and they travel over land.

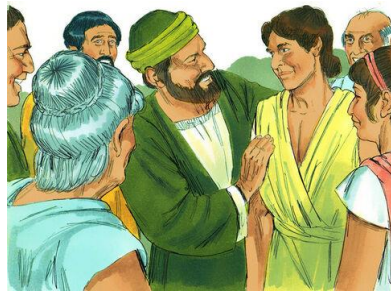

They visit all the cities from the first missionary journey, confirming the congregations.

They visit all the cities from the first missionary journey, confirming the congregations.

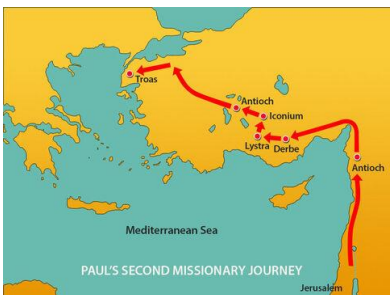

Paul finds the young disciple Timothy in Lystra, and after circumcising him, takes him along on his journey.

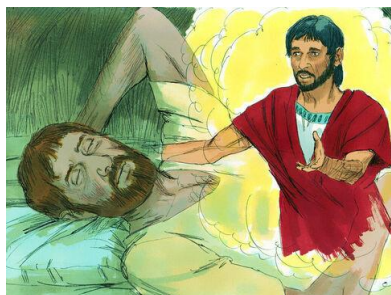

Paul finds the young disciple Timothy in Lystra, and after circumcising him, takes him along on his journey.

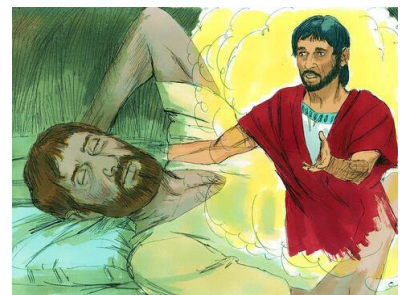

Paul then is deciding where to go, but the Spirit will not allow him to go to certain places.

Paul then is deciding where to go, but the Spirit will not allow him to go to certain places.

In Troas, Paul has a vision at night of a Macedonian man calling "Come over and help us."

In Troas, Paul has a vision at night of a Macedonian man calling "Come over and help us."

They travel by ship from Troas to Neapolis, entering Europe.

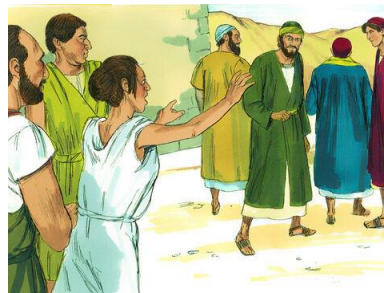

They travel by ship from Troas to Neapolis, entering Europe.

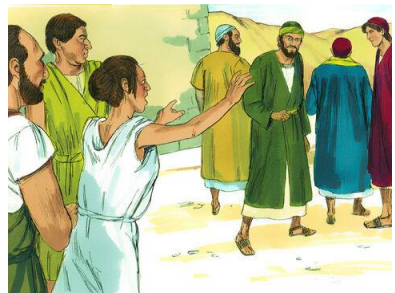

In Philippi, they find women in prayer, of which one was Lydia, who was converted under Paul's preaching.

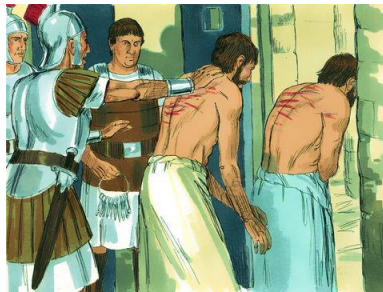

In Philippi, they find women in prayer, of which one was Lydia, who was converted under Paul's preaching.

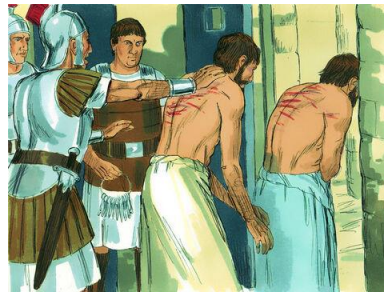

A woman possessed by a spirit of divination kept following Paul. Paul commanded the spirit to come out.

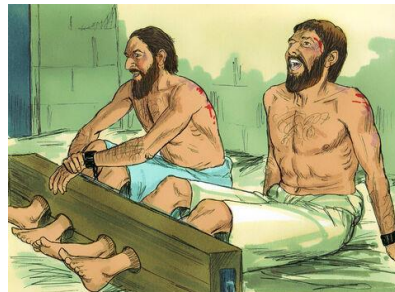

A woman possessed by a spirit of divination kept following Paul. Paul commanded the spirit to come out.

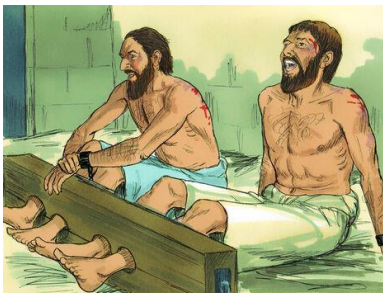

The woman's masters were angry and had Paul and Barnabas cast into prison.

The woman's masters were angry and had Paul and Barnabas cast into prison.

Paul and Barnabas are singing while in prison.

Paul and Barnabas are singing while in prison.

After an earthquake opened the prison doors, the jailer wants to kill himself, but Paul prevents this.

After an earthquake opened the prison doors, the jailer wants to kill himself, but Paul prevents this.

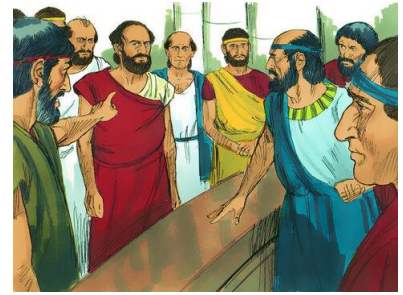

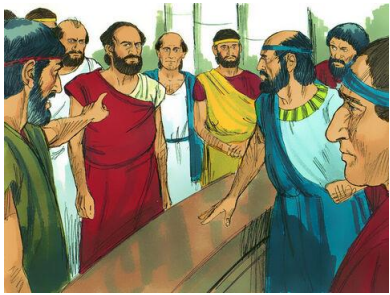

Paul preaching in Thessalonica, but the unbelieving Jews caused an uproar.

Paul preaching in Thessalonica, but the unbelieving Jews caused an uproar.

They bring Jason, where Paul had stayed in Thessalonica, before the city council.

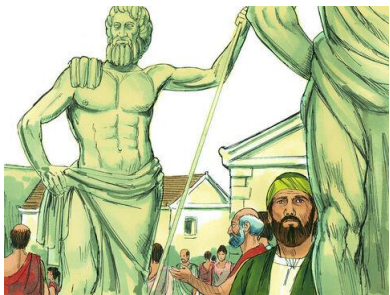

They bring Jason, where Paul had stayed in Thessalonica, before the city council.

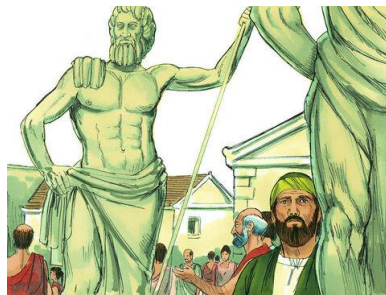

Paul was brought to Berea, where the people were more open-minded and searched the Scriptures.

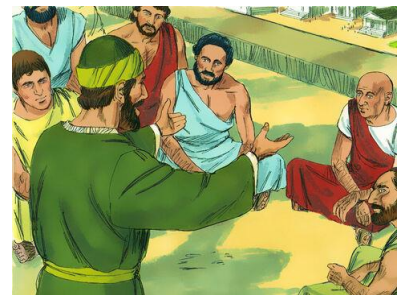

Paul was brought to Berea, where the people were more open-minded and searched the Scriptures.

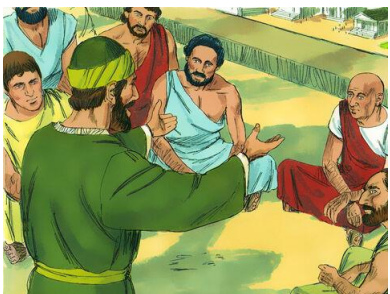

In Athens, Paul finds many idols, and an altar to the unknown God.

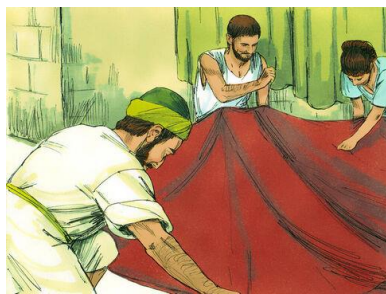

In Athens, Paul finds many idols, and an altar to the unknown God.

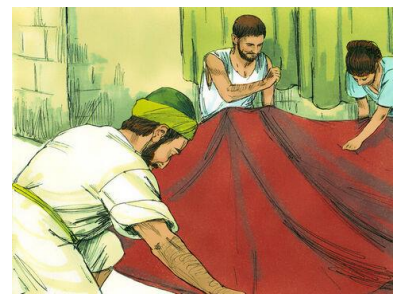

Paul speaks to the people of Athens on Mars hill. Some mocked the resurrection.

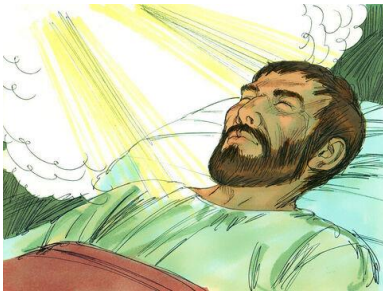

Paul speaks to the people of Athens on Mars hill. Some mocked the resurrection.

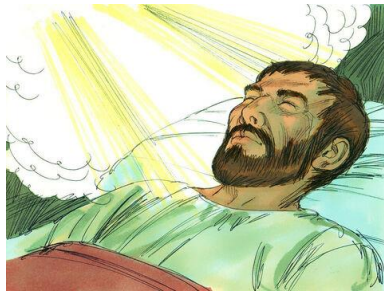

In Corinth, Paul stays with Aquila and Priscilla, helping them with the making of tents.

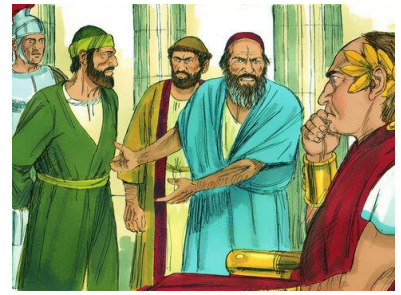

In Corinth, Paul stays with Aquila and Priscilla, helping them with the making of tents.

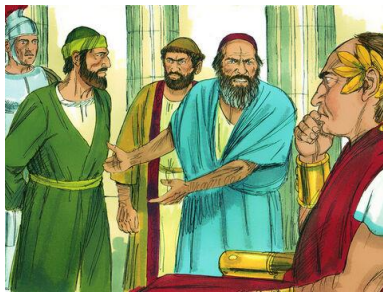

God encourages Paul in a vision at night, saying that He has many of His people in Corinth.

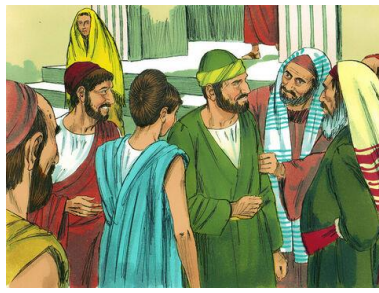

God encourages Paul in a vision at night, saying that He has many of His people in Corinth.

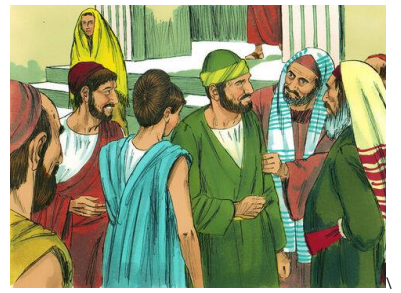

The Jews accuse Paul of persuading men to worship God contrary to the law.

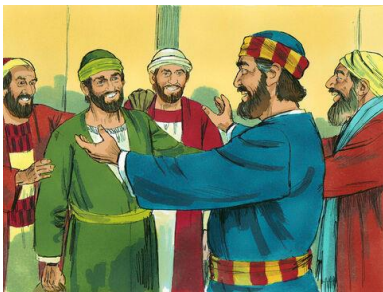

The Jews accuse Paul of persuading men to worship God contrary to the law.

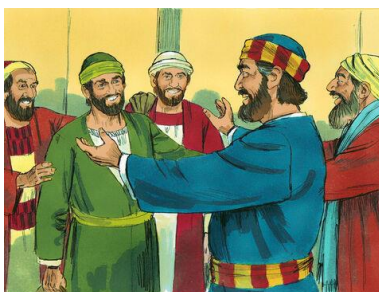

Paul goes to Ephesus. The people would like him to stay longer, but he can not at this time.

Paul goes to Ephesus. The people would like him to stay longer, but he can not at this time.

Paul is saluted by the church in Jerusalem, and tells them of all that has happened.

Paul is saluted by the church in Jerusalem, and tells them of all that has happened.