Questions:

What was the plan of the people?

What did God do while they were building the tower?

What is the tower called?

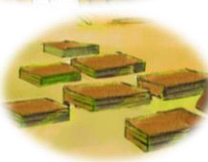

All the  on the earth live close together.

All the  speak the same language.

One day, the  say to each other,

“Let us make a  which reaches up to heaven.”

The  start making .

With those , they start to build a high .

God sees the proud plan of the .

God wants to stop this plan. God lets everybody speak a different language.

The  cannot understand each other anymore!

They stop working together. They walk away, and choose to live somewhere else.

The  never got finished. It is called the  of Babel.
